Lipse Too combines an abstract, retro-modern aesthetic with the comfort of a lounge chair designed for total relaxation. A thin, polished aluminum connection detail secures the upholstered seat to the back, while two vastly different base options—a pedestal and four-leg swivel—allow you to customize the chair for style and use.

Though it fits easily into any reception or lounge atmosphere, don't mistake this ample, inviting piece for being all play and no work. Lipse Too features an optional swivel tablet arm, providing users with a sturdy work surface that can be moved to either side.
